Gathering Music: I Offer My Life

Joshua Zilberman

Welcome & Announcements

Rev. Rhoda Howell

- We are continuing to accept non-perishable items for MUST Ministries. These items will help students who depend on free and reduced lunches during the school closure. You can leave these items outside the church. Please email secretary@mvumc.org if you leave items so we can bring them inside.
- Praise be to God! Thank you for your faithfulness and prayers for our Matching Challenge! You have faithfully given $13,400! This means that our donor will match $10,000 to this! This amazing collection will make much needed repairs to the parsonage, moving costs for the pastor coming in, and more!

Be Present at Our Table, Lord

Be pres-ent at our ta-ble, Lord; be here and ev-ery -

The first system of music is in 4/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of a treble and a bass staff. The treble staff contains a vocal line with a melody of quarter notes. The bass staff contains a piano accompaniment of chords, primarily dyads and triads, with some eighth-note patterns.

4

The third system of music concludes the hymn. It begins with a measure rest marked with the number 6. The treble staff ends with a final cadence, and the bass staff provides a concluding accompaniment.

Message: Have You Been Washed? Who Have You Served?

Scripture: John 13:1-17, 31b-35 NRSV

Rev. Rhoda Howell

¹³ Now before the festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart from this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. ² The devil had already put it into the heart of Judas son of Simon Iscariot to betray him. And during supper ³ Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going to God, ⁴ got up from the table, took off his outer robe, and tied a towel around himself. ⁵ Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around him. ⁶ He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?" ⁷ Jesus answered, "You do not know now what I am doing, but later you will understand." ⁸ Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no share with me." ⁹ Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!" ¹⁰ Jesus said to him, "One who has bathed does not need to wash, except for the feet, but is entirely clean. And you are clean, though not all of you." ¹¹ For he knew who was to betray him; for this reason he said, "Not all of you are clean." ¹² After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had returned to the table, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? ¹³ You call me Teacher and Lord—and you are right, for that is what I am. ¹⁴ So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. ¹⁵ For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. ¹⁶ Very truly, I tell you, servants are not greater than their master, nor are messengers greater than the one who sent them. ¹⁷ If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them.

³¹ When he had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. ³² If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once. ³³ Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.' ³⁴ I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. ³⁵ By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."
